PSA10F Series – Expiration of BSMI Safety Approval for Taiwan

Dear Valued Phihong Customer:

The BSMI safety approval for the PSA10F-050-R, PSA10F-050(P)-R, PSA10F-050Q-R, PSA10F-050Q(D)-R, and PSA10F-050Q(S)-R adapters has expired and due to limited demand for the approval it has not been renewed. Attached is a copy of the Parts Change Notice to remove the compliance marking and a copy of the new model label drawings. Please contact your Phihong sales representative should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Thomas Chin
