Re: Notice of Obsolescence and Last Time Buy

We have identified the following parts in the table below for EOL (end of life) effective immediately.

Please consider this letter the formal notification of our intent to end of life these products

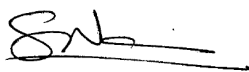

We are offering a last time buy opportunity. Please note that current lead times are in excess of 11 months. Once we receive your Last Time Buy order, we will do our best to pull this in. Distributor pricing and MOQ for Last time buy orders are below

LTB orders must be placed by August 1, 2019 and all orders will be Non-Cancellable-Non-Returnable (NCNR) and not eligible for stock rotation.
