Description of change	The SOM and SBC part numbers listed under affected part numbers below were populated with an additional Cortex-M microcontroller. The microcontroller does not contain any Digi firmware and is not a requirement for the SOMs or SBCs to function. The intent was to provide an option to host customer application code. The microcontroller has sourcing issues and would have an adverse effect on pricing. Going forward Digi will not populate this microcontroller anymore. There is no change in the functionality of the product.
